MVAH Partners Proudly Receive Funding for New Development in Boonville, Indiana

Boonville, Indiana – The development team of MVAH Partners in partnership with Boonville Now, Inc. recently announced the award of funding for the construction of Boonville Homes. The development is being funded by the sale of housing tax credits awarded by the Indiana Housing & Community Development Authority (IHCDA), IHCDA's Development Fund and an AHP grant from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis.

Boonville Homes, located in the City of Boonville, Warrick County, Indiana, will serve families who desire high-quality, affordable rental housing. The 44-unit community will include a mix of one- and two-bedroom garden apartment homes, two- and three-bedroom townhomes and four-bedroom single-family homes complete with energy-efficient features and a multitude of amenities normally found in luxury communities. However, rents will be set at affordable rates.

Brian McGeady, Partner of MVAH Partners said that the company is excited to help the economy and bring its dedicated expertise in high quality, affordable housing to the area. McGeady explained, "Boonville Homes allows MVAH Partners to provide outstanding, brand new homes to an area that needs them. We are enthusiastic and privileged to serve the City of Boonville and prove to them that our passion is to positively impact their lives."

"The level of community support has been truly amazing," stated Brian McGeady, Managing Partner. "We're thrilled to be able to work with CREA and the City of Boonville in this development effort."
